Medical

UTC offers three HDHP with HSA medical plan options from which to choose. (HDHP with HSA stands for High Deductible Health Plan with Health Savings Account). All three HDHP options have a lot in common:

- Access to a national network of health care providers and facilities to help you save money
- In-network preventive care is covered at 100% before the deductible
- The same services are covered, like doctor office visits, hospital care, lab work and X-rays
- Comprehensive Autism coverage is included
- Mental Health / Substance Abuse coverage is included
- Prescription drug benefits that are administered by CVS/caremark
- The same level of benefits — called coinsurance — is paid after you meet the deductible
- There is a “safety net” (known as a medical out-of-pocket maximum)

However, they differ in what you pay to have coverage (your premiums) and what you pay when you receive care (your deductible and medical out-of-pocket maximum).

Live in California?

The Kaiser HDHP may also be available to you if you live within the Kaiser network area.

Who Is Eligible for Coverage

You can elect to cover:

- Yourself,
- You plus your spouse,
- You plus your children, or
- You plus your family.

Eligible dependents include your legal spouse, civil union or domestic partner (if covered on at least one UTC health plan as of December 31, 2015), children up to age 26 and disabled children regardless of their age (if they became disabled while covered as your dependent and depend on you for support). Eligible children include: natural or legally adopted children, pre-adopted children (if you have assumed custody and have applied for adoption), step-children, children for whom you are the court appointed legal guardian and children of a same-gender civil union or domestic partner.

The coverage you elect will go into effect 31 calendar days after your hire date. What you pay for coverage depends on the plan you choose and the coverage level you select. You can also waive medical coverage.

What an HSA Is and Why You Want One

A Health Savings Account (HSA) is like a savings plan for health care expenses. It's an interest-bearing account that can help offset current health care costs, as well as build savings for future health care costs (such as in retirement).

The only way to have an HSA is to be enrolled in an HDHP. With an HSA, money comes out of your pay before taxes. You can elect to contribute pre-tax dollars to an HSA up to the IRS limit.

The tax-free dollars in an HSA roll over from year to year, and you can use this money now or anytime in the future for eligible health care expenses (such as prescription drugs, vision or dental expenses and medical costs you have to pay through coinsurance). HSA withdrawals are not taxed as long as they are used for eligible health care expenses.

Out-of-Pocket Costs With the HDHP Options

Here are your out-of-pocket costs when you receive in-network care.

Coverage for You Only

	HDHP Option 1	HDHP Option 2	HDHP Option 3
Your Deductible Amount you pay before UTC starts to share the cost of most services with you	$1,600	$2,400	$3,500
	+
Your Medical Coinsurance Maximum Most you pay in one year for coinsurance for eligible costs after you meet your deductible	$1,600	$2,400	$3,050
	=
Your Medical Out-of-Pocket Maximum Most you pay (your deductible + medical coinsurance) before the plan pays 100% of eligible costs for the rest of the year	$3,200	$4,800	$6,550

Coverage for You and Your Family

	HDHP Option 1	HDHP Option 2	HDHP Option 3
Your Deductible Amount you pay before UTC starts to share the cost of most services with you	$3,200	$5,100	$6,850
	+
Your Medical Coinsurance Maximum Most you pay in one year for coinsurance for eligible costs after you meet your deductible	$3,650	$5,800	$6,250
	=
Your Medical Out-of-Pocket Maximum Most you pay (your deductible + medical coinsurance) before the plan pays 100% of eligible costs for the rest of the year	$6,850	$10,900	$13,100

Meeting the Family Deductible and Medical Out-of-Pocket Maximum

For family coverage (you + one or more dependents), there are no individual limits for the deductible. This means that you must meet the family deductible before the plan starts paying anything toward your medical expenses, and you will continue to pay coinsurance until you meet the family medical out-of-pocket maximum. There is an in-network individual limit for the out-of-pocket maximum. This means no individual covered under a family plan will pay more than $6,850 toward his or her deductible and coinsurance combined.

Cost for Coverage

Your paycheck premium depends on which plan you choose and who you cover. Here are the monthly medical premiums:

	You Only	You + Spouse	You + Child(ren)	You + Family

Option 3	$0.00	$73.00	$56.00	$131.00

Note: The premiums shown are for full-time employees with a base pay of more than $30,000 (more than $14.43 per hour). Your Human Resources contact can provide part-time rates, if needed.

Dental

UTC offers three dental plan options:

- The Preventive Plan covers preventive and diagnostic services only, such as routine exams and cleanings.
- The Comprehensive Plan provides a broader range of dental services, including corrective, replacement and orthodontic services.
- The Cigna Dental Care Plan (a DHMO) covers a broad range of dental services, but you must use the plan's network providers to receive benefits.

You also have the option to waive coverage.

Tax-Advantaged Accounts

UTC offers tax-advantaged accounts that help you lower the cost of two major types of expenses that many families face every day: health care and dependent care expenses. You can contribute tax-free money to your accounts and use that money to pay for eligible expenses.

Here are the types of tax-advantaged accounts offered.

Health Savings Account (HSA)

Available If You Enroll in an HDHP

You can save money in an interest-bearing HSA to help pay for future health care costs (such as in retirement), or you can use the money to pay for eligible health care expenses this year. Any withdrawals you make to pay for eligible health care expenses are not taxed. The money you save plus any interest you earn in your HSA is tax-free (as long as you use it to pay for eligible health care expenses). You can contribute to your HSA through pre-tax payroll deductions or in a lump sum sent directly to PayFlex.

For 2016, you can contribute up to $3,350 for individual coverage and $6,750 for family coverage. Once you reach age 55, and each year thereafter, you are eligible to make an additional annual "catch-up" contribution of up to $1,000 to your HSA for that year.

Health Care Spending Account (HCSA)

Available If You Waive Medical Coverage

You can contribute from $120 up to $2,550 on an annual pre-tax basis to an HCSA to pay for eligible medical, dental (including orthodontia) and vision expenses.

Dependent Care Spending Account (DCSA)

You can contribute from $120 up to $5,000 a year tax-free to pay for eligible child and/or elder care expenses so that you (or you and your spouse) can work, look for work or attend school full-time. Eligible expenses include:

- Child care for your children younger than age 13, including:
 - Child care provided in your home (by someone who is not your dependent),
 - Licensed nursery school or day care center, and
 - Summer day camps (day care expenses only).
- Elder care for your eligible dependents, in-home or at eligible facilities.

Vision

The UTC Vision Plan, administered by VSP Vision Care (VSP), provides benefits for eye exams and prescription eyeglasses or contact lenses. The Vision Plan provides benefits through a nationwide network of qualified private practice doctors. Using providers in this network saves you money.

In-Network Benefit Highlights

Here are some of the services covered by the Vision Plan. Your out-of-pocket costs would be higher if you receive care from an out-of-network provider.

UTC Savings Plan

The UTC Savings Plan is designed to provide you with two opportunities to save for your retirement. First is the opportunity to save for your own future with support from UTC in the form of a matching contribution. Second, there is a company automatic contribution that you receive even if you decide not to participate in the Savings Plan.

Your Contributions

You will be eligible to enroll in the UTC Savings Plan any time after your date of hire. Generally, you may elect to save from 1% to 40% of your pay on a before tax, Roth 401(k) and/or after tax basis. You are always vested in the value of your own contributions, which are adjusted for any earnings or losses.

Company Contributions

UTC will match 60% of the first 6% of your contributions to the UTC Savings Plan with shares of company stock. Company matching contributions will not be made until one year after your date of hire. Generally, you become vested in UTC matching contributions after you complete a total of two years of participation in the Savings Plan or after you complete three years of continuous service with UTC or any of its affiliates, whichever comes first.

You will receive a company automatic contribution each pay period, regardless of whether you contribute to the Savings Plan. The company's automatic contribution will begin 45 days after your date of hire. The contribution percentage will be based on your age as of December 31 of each calendar year as follows:

Age as of December 31	Contribution Percentage
Up to age 30	3.0%
Age 30–34	3.5%
Age 35–39	4.0%
Age 40–44	4.5%
Age 45–49	5.0%
Age 50 or older	5.5%

Company automatic contributions will be invested in the same investment option(s) as your contribution(s). In the absence of an investment election, these contributions will be directed to the Lifetime Income Strategy. Also, company automatic contributions will vest in the same manner as company matching contributions. You will receive more information on contributing to the UTC Savings Plan should an offer be extended and you accept it.

What Happens If You Don't Enroll

If you have not enrolled in the Savings Plan within 45 days after your date of hire, you will be automatically enrolled at a contribution rate of 6% of your before-tax eligible earnings. Your contributions will be automatically directed to the Lifetime Income Strategy. The Lifetime Income Strategy offers built-in diversification within a single option, with the added benefit of access to a steady and secure income stream for the rest of your life. Also, your contribution rate will automatically increase by 1% of your eligible pay each year in April until it reaches 10%. You can change these default elections at any time after being automatically enrolled in the UTC Savings Plan. If you do not wish to contribute to the Savings Plan, you must change your contribution rate to 0%.

Employees who have exhausted their sick days and are still unable to return to work will continue benefits coverage through short-term disability for up to a total of 26 weeks (for most employees). Short-term disability benefits are paid at 60% of base pay, up to a maximum annual base pay of $250,000.
