State-Specific Background Investigation Notices

Requesting your consumer report. To request a copy of your consumer report, when adding your electronic signature to the Background Investigation Disclosure and the Background Check Acknowledgment and Authorization, you will see the following statement below a request for your current address: "Click here to receive a copy of your consumer report (U.S. addresses only)." Checking the accompanying box will notify First Advantage of your request. Your report(s) will be sent by First Advantage to the address you provide in the "Current Address" section. Outside of this process, and for individuals residing outside of the U.S., contact First Advantage, Consumer Center, P.O. Box 105292, Atlanta, Georgia 30348, (800) 845-6004 or (678) 694-2530 to discuss obtaining a copy of your consumer report.

Disclosures for California, New York, Minnesota, Oklahoma and Washington State residents.

California applicants/residents only. First Advantage, Consumer Center, P.O. Box 105292, Atlanta, Georgia 30348, (800) 845-6004 or (678) 694-2530 is UTC's CRA. First Advantage is required to supply your file and information required under California Civil Code section 1786.10 during normal business hours and on reasonable notice as follows:

- In person, your file is available for visual inspection or copying with proper identification. Any copying fee cannot exceed actual costs of duplication.
- By certified mail, after written request -- with proper identification -- for copies to be sent to a specified addressee. First Advantage will not be liable for third party disclosures caused by mishandling of mail after mailings leave its facilities.
- A summary of all information contained your file and required to be provided by section 1786.10 must be provided by telephone after written request for telephone disclosure and with proper identification. First Advantage may require any toll charge for the telephone call to be prepaid or charged directly to you.

"Proper identification" means that information generally deemed sufficient to identify a person, such as a valid driver's license, social security account number, military identification card, and credit cards. If you are unable to reasonably identify yourself with the information described above, First Advantage may require additional information concerning your employment and personal or family history in order to verify your identity.

First Advantage must provide trained personnel to explain your file, and when a file is provided for visual inspection, written explanation of any coded information contained in your file. You may be accompanied by one person, who must provide proper identification. First Advantage may require you to furnish a written statement granting permission to discuss your file in such person's presence.

You may receive a copy of your report as previously outlined by clicking the check box below or by contacting First Advantage.
